I am Yash Saraf and I am a manufacturer and wholesaler of ethnic wear for women under the banner MADAM.

I was struggling with chronic pain and emotional distress when I met Rupal Thacker of YOUNIVERSE. Her unique blend of healing modalities and accuracy with tarot card readings helped me find relief and renewed purpose. Through regular sessions, I experienced significant improvements in my physical and emotional well-being. I had transformative healing with Rupalji thank you so much! She knew the exact issue the second she pulled out a card that my question demanded. It was bang on right!!

Her professionalism, empathy, and expertise make her an exceptional healer. I've experienced profound personal growth and transformation.

I highly recommend her services to anyone seeking holistic care. Their dedication, expertise, and kindness have made a lasting impact on my life.

Thanking You
